Active and Passive Voice

Day 12

Introduction to the course

- ❖ It's important that we have the knowledge of Active and Passive Voice along with the knowledge of tenses. So, this time we have brought a special course for you all.
- ❖ In this course you will get mastery on Voice.
- ❖ Your spoken part will improve.
- ❖ Your written part will be rhetoric, after you have attended all the sessions of this course.

How to change Voice for sentences having double objects

There are sentences where we can double objects has been used for example

Deepak sent me some pictures.
He will show you some tricks.

Here in the first example, we can see that there are two objects and one of them is Direct object and second one is indirect object

If we ask a question using what in first example like:

Deepak sent what? Pictures would be the answer hence it's a direct object.

And when we ask like whom was it sent to? The answer would be 'to me' and it's the indirect object.

So, let's see some examples which would make the concept clear:

1. Deepak sent me some pictures.

1st case Some pictures were sent to me by Deepak.

2nd case I was sent some pictures by Deepak.

2. He will show you many tricks.

1st case Many tricks will be shown to me by him.

2nd case You will be shown many tricks by him.

3. She promised me a present.

A present was promised to me by her.

I was promised a present by her.

4. Who teaches you Hindi?

By whom are you taught Hindi?

By whom is Hindi taught to you?

5. Will you pay him the bill?

Will the bill be paid to him by you?

Will he be paid the bill by you?
