Phrasal Prepositions

Phrasal prepositions are grouped into phrases of three or more words that could include adverbs, verbs and other words that function as one phrasal preposition. All words are separated to form one phrasal preposition. Phrasal prepositions include: in addition to, in spite of, on account of, as soon as, as opposed to, as far as, in reference to, on top of, with the exception of, in front of, as long as etc.

Examples of phrasal prepositions in context:
