There are five different types of prepositions:

- Simple prepositions
- Double prepositions
- Compound prepositions
- Participle prepositions
- Phrase prepositions

Simple Prepositions

Simple prepositions are words like at, for, in, off, on, over, and under. These common prepositions can be used to describe a location, time or place.

Some examples of common prepositions used in sentences are:

- He sat on the chair.
- There is some milk in the fridge.
- She was hiding under the table.
- The cat jumped off the counter.
- He drove over the bridge.

Double Prepositions

Double prepositions are two simple prepositions used together, often indicating direction. Some examples are into, upon, onto, out of, from within.

- Once upon a time, there was a beautiful princess.
- The baby climbed onto the table.

- It is up to us to find the answer.
- The loud noise came from within the stadium.
- She never leaves without her phone.

Compound Prepositions

Compound prepositions (or complex prepositions) consist of two or more words, usually a simple preposition and another word, to convey location. Some examples are in addition to, on behalf of, and in the middle of.

- She sat across from Marie.
- I attended the meeting on behalf of my company.
- We were in the middle of the storm.

Participle Prepositions

Participle prepositions have endings such as -ed and -ing. Examples are words such as considering, during, concerning, provided.

- She is interested in anything concerning horses.
- He works one job during the day and another at night.
- The dog kept following him home.
- The teacher said no talking during class.

Phrase Prepositions

Phrase prepositions (or prepositional phrases) include a preposition, an object, and the object's modifier. Examples include phrases like on time, at home, before class, and on the floor.

- I will get to the conference on time.
- The baseball game was cancelled after the heavy rain.
- John found his homework under the bed.
